Nevada Politician in Reno Suit Admits Promise to Marry, but Says It Was Conditional.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

RENO, June 5.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—Judge Ross' court today the breach of promise suit brought by Miss Rose McDonald against W. L. Hacker, former City Attorney of Sparks, and chief clerk of the Nevada Assembly, was called.

Both sides have waived a jury.

Miss McDonald is suing Hacker for $100,000, claiming that he promised to marry her and now refuses to keep his promise. She also claims Hacker is indebted to her for money loaned.

Hacker admits that he promised to marry Miss McDonald, but asserts the promise was made conditional and depended upon his success as an attorney and as a candidate for the Legislature. He claims Miss McDonald is indebted to him in the sum of $100 borrowed money, and asks judgment against her for that amount.

GRAND JUNCTION (Colo.) June 5.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—Fresh and unwearied from their 475-mile walk from Denver, two pretty feminine transcontinental hikers, the Misses Frances Leach, 18, and Mary Coyne, 22, reached this city today on their overland journey to San Francisco.

Miss Coyne laughingly related their experience with two tramps this side of Glenwood Springs.

"We have never been subjected to insult except once," she said. "Yesterday two grimy hoboes halted us. We walked on and they pursued. They used insulting language, and we pulled our revolvers. About two shots apiece at the ground near their feet and they made Mercury ashamed of himself. We were perfectly able to take care of ourselves and can walk to the Golden Gate without being or without sacrificing honor or self-respect."

"No cheap sport had better start anything with us," she added with a jerk of her head and a stamp of her foot.

Gov. Johnson Listens to Doctors and Also Insurance Men on Measures Before Him.

(BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SACRAMENTO (Cal.) June 5.—Public hearings were granted by Gov. Johnson to insurance and medical men today on the mutual fire insurance bill passed at the last session of the Legislature and on the Avey medical bill. Insurance men from various cities of the State, some opposing and some in favor of the insurance measure, participated in the arguments.

Husband of Noted Society Woman in London Refuses Reconciliation in Divorce Suit.

(BY CABLE AND WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

LONDON, June 5.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—All efforts to bring about a reconciliation between Mrs. George Cornwallis-West, mother of Winston Churchill, and originally Miss Jennie Fremont of New York, and her husband, have been definitely abandoned, and the trial of the suit for divorce brought by Mrs. Cornwallis-West will be proceeded with.

Mr. Cornwallis-West has entered an answer, but the date for the trial has not yet been fixed.

SAN JOSE DIVINE FOR BALTIMORE.

DR. GUTH MAY BECOME HEAD OF METHODIST COLLEGE.

Distinguished Theologian and Educator Invited to Become President of Goucher Female Institution, Largest One of Its Kind in the United States.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

BALTIMORE, June 5.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—The Rev. William Wesley Guth, the distinguished theologian and educator of San Jose, Cal., came to this city by appointment today and conferred with the trustees of Goucher College regarding the vacancy of the president's chair of that institution about which he was approached recently.

It is understood that the Rev. Dr. Guth is favorably disposed toward taking the helm of this, the largest Methodist female educational institution in America and while the results of the conference were guarded carefully, it was learned that they were satisfactory. Those interested in Guth admitted tonight that they believed he would receive the appointment and that he would accept.

The Rev. Dr. Guth arrived in Baltimore on Wednesday afternoon with his wife and engaged apartments at the fashionable Hotel Belvidere. Yesterday afternoon John F. Sloan, president of the Goucher trustees and Sumnerfield Baldwin, an interested capitalist and also a member of the board, met him at the private law room of the hotel and held a lengthy conference. After the conference all three refused to discuss the situation. Mr. Baldwin, however, for Dr. Guth's apartment, and ten minutes later Sloan, who was accompanied, all three returned to the hotel.

Takes Big List to Capitol and Finds Door Locked.

Old College Chum to Learn Ways of the Dutch.

(BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON, June 5.—President Wilson appeared unexpectedly at the President's room at the Capitol today with the biggest list of diplomatic selections he has made since he took office.

When the President's fifth visit to the White House, but this time he found the door of the "marble room" locked, the Senate had adjourned and the urgent-at-arms was taken by surprise.

"I guess I'll have to get a duplicate key for this door," said the President, smiling, as the sergeant-at-arms hastily dispatched a messenger for the key. Hardly any Senators were in the building, but Secretary Tumulty soon sent out a call for about twenty of them and they came in quickly from the Senate office building.

While the President has not definitely fixed on some of the countries to which he will make diplomatic appointments, he has chosen the men who will get the posts and about these he consulted Republican as well as Democratic Senators.

WILSON'S LIST.

The individuals about whom the President talked and some of the countries follow.

Thomas Nelson Page of Virginia, to be Ambassador to Italy.

Justice J. W. Ward of New York, to be Ambassador in Spain, when the bill making Madrid an embassy instead of a legation is passed, probably within a few weeks.

Col. Thomas H. Birch of New Jersey, to be Minister to Persia.

Charles W. McAlpin, secretary of Princeton University, to be Minister to the Netherlands.

Joseph E. Willard of Virginia, to be Minister to Belgium.

Blair E. J. Hale of North Carolina, to be Minister to Costa Rica.

P. A. Stovall of Georgia, to be Minister to Switzerland.

Dr. B. L. Jefferson of Colorado, to be Minister to a South American country, probably Argentine Republic.

Henry Morgenthau of New York, to be Ambassador, probably to Turkey.

Albert Schmedemann of Wisconsin, to be Minister to Norway.

Frederick C. Penfield of Pennsylvania, probably Ambassador to Austria.

When the President got through talking to the Senators, he met the newspaper men in the corridor and explained that his visit had been chiefly about diplomatic appointments and that no official list would be made public until word was received from the various foreign governments as to the acceptability of the individuals named.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—Golden eyes for his new house in an architectural innovation that James H. Flood has decided to introduce, according to a report published today.

The structure is to be of carved Vermont marble, it is said, and the cornices of beaten bronze are to be plated with pure gold.

Stork and Cupid Cuning Plotters.

Many a New Home Will Have a Little Sunbeam to Brighten It.

There is some dread in every woman's mind as to the probable pain, distress and danger of child-birth. But thanks to a remarkable remedy known as Mother's Friend, the mother in one of joyful satisfaction.

Mother's Friend is a penetrating, extra-an application. It makes the muscles of the stomach and abdomen relax and with some of the most potent anesthetic and other properties that tend to weaken the prospective mother. Thus Cupid and the stork are rated as cunning plotters to herald the coming of a little sunbeam to gladden the hearts and homes.

Thousands of women know from experience Mother's Friend is one of our greatest contributions to happy motherhood. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Specially recommended as a preventive of child-birth.

How to Live Long and Keep Well.

This is a question that has caused an immense amount of thought on the part of scientists all over the world. Age is largely a matter of feeling, not of years. To the strong man of seventy life holds out more promise than to a weakling of thirty, but while vigor and the ability to avoid disease are the natural possession of youth, with advancing years more care must be taken to keep the system in condition.

To Suit the West.

Not fit for cultivation. An investigation ten years later (1911) showed most of the lands to have passed into the hands of timber companies. Only 100 settlers were living in the area eliminated, and the total amount of land in cultivation was but 570 acres, or an average of less than six acres to the settler.

"These selfish interests give voice to the cry for State ownership of the lands in Federal forests, the theory of Federal reservation and control have been inaugurated at an early date, every acre of desirable surveyed land would by the time have passed into private ownership."

"Our timber resources have been gradually slipping to the control of selfish interests, and had not the policy of Federal reservation and control been inaugurated at an early date, every acre of desirable surveyed land would by the time have passed into private ownership."

Gov. West is a Democrat. He was careful to specify that he does not hold Secretary Lane responsible for faults which originated before his term began.

HUNT ON MINERAL RESOURCES.

National control of mineral resources, especially the theory of State control, was warmly defended by Gov. Hunt of Arizona.

Conservation, either State or national, must be counter to a failure, said the Governor. "If it does not directly and materially benefit the entire people," he said, "it is not worth the cost."

"Co-operation between the State and the nation along these lines will do more good than all the quarrelling over State's rights for a decade would accomplish."

SLAM AT IN. WALTON.

Maryland Congressmen Will Introduce Two Bills to Protect Finny Inhabitants of Interstate Waters.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, June 5.—(Exclusive Dispatch.)—Representative Landon of Maryland will introduce in the House tomorrow two bills for protection and conservation of food fish in American inland waters.

One bill, patterned after the migratory bird law, provides that all fish that do not remain the entire year within the boundaries of any Territory shall be deemed to be within the protection of the United States government and that the Secretary of Commerce is directed to adopt suitable regulations fixing closed seasons during which it shall be unlawful to take or destroy any fish within the protection of this law.

The second bill, aimed at the fish fertilizer and fish-oil factories, denies interstate transportation and exportation of parts of fish, products or compounds composed in whole or in part of fish intended to be used for fertilizer or oil other than those commonly known and designated menhaden, shark, dogfish, skates, rays, sea robins and sculpins.

President's Wife Sends Potted Plants to the Fruit and Flower Guild That Looks After the Poor.

(BY CABLE AND WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, June 5.—(Special Dispatch.)—Mrs. Wilson has sent a number of potted plants each with her card from the White House propagating gardens to the Washington branch of the National Plant, Fruit and Flower Guild, which supplies luxuries to the sick poor. There were 1594 plants distributed yesterday, many of them being from that source.

The Secretary of State and Mrs. Bryan and other members of the Cabinet were guests at the reception given by the National Press Club at the New Willard tonight.

Mrs. Bryan and Mrs. Lane presided at the tea table this afternoon at a tea which followed the auction sale of rare old jewels, lace, embroideries, pictures and furniture sold by the Gentlewoman's League of Washington.

The service over which Mrs. Bryan presided was a part of the old Monroe dinner used nearly a century ago in the White House.

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels took their sons to Annapolis with them to attend the exercises at the academy. They left the capital in a special electric car early this morning.

The Secretary of War and Mrs. Garrison were the guests at dinner tonight of Mrs. Frederick D. Grant, who had a few other guests to meet them. Mrs. Grant will close her Washington home the latter part of June and will go to West Point for a visit before going to the Berkshire Hills for the season.

BRAZIL A HAVEN FOR JAPANESE.

Start Permanent Colony in South American State.

Another to Be Established at End of This Year.

Work Under Contracts by a Mutual Agreement.

SEATTLE, June 5.—Japan is finding an outlet for her surplus population in South America, according to information brought today by the liner Maun Maru.

Fifteen hundred Japanese were landed at Santos, Brazil, May 15, to be the first members of a permanent Japanese colony in Brazil under an agreement between Brazil and Japan. One hundred and fifty thousand acres of agricultural land has been set apart by the Brazilian government for the colony.

Another large colony will be planted next year in Brazil, the settlers to leave Japan about the end of 1918.

Both Brazil and Peru are being supplied with colonies who leave Japan under contract with various South American industrial organizations. The first of these contract laborers left Yokohama for one of the Peruvian ports last month and another shipment of 150 will sail from Yokohama on June 21. These laborers will be employed on sugar plantations and contracts have been made for 500 at a rate of 40 cents a day, with free board.

Another contract for Japanese labor has been entered into by operators of a gold mine in Brazil, who have contracted for 100 coolies, who will leave Japan this month.

This contract is for a period of three years, and is based upon a wage of 150 a month.

APPEAL FOR CARNEGIE.

New York School Principals Take to the Commissioner's Easy System Like a Duck to Water.

NEW YORK, June 5.—The literacy charges against many teachers and some principals by the Committee on School Economy, which reported to the board of estimates yesterday, is attended by the following "horrible examples": They are taken from over 500 letters written in one month to the city paymaster, over thirty of the letters containing glaring errors.

Teachers wrote:

"I want to the school to do."

"I have been surprised to learn of a teacher's resignation."

"At the my residence where am leaving since four years."

"Trusting this will meet with your approval."

One letter was so full of errors as to be almost unintelligible.

The rating of each of the teachers who wrote these quoted letters was on record as "fit and meritorious."

ACCUSED OFFICER'S WIFE.

Esplanade Is Also Charged With Aiding Her in Theft of Goods at an Army Post.

HOUSTON (Tex.), June 5.—The case of Lieut. Joseph Wier and his wife, Mildred d'Armond Wier, both of whom are under indictment at Cheyenne, Wyo., charged with the theft of goods from the wife of Capt. J. S. Cecil, was resumed here today before United States Commissioner A. L. Jackson.

Capt. and Mrs. Cecil testified that Lieut. and Mrs. Wier had occupied their quarters at Ft. McClellan during February and March, 1917. When they returned Mrs. Cecil testified she missed certain goods, and had Mrs. Wier shadowed in Houston. She identified today pieces of the goods alleged to have been stolen.

Three months, Mrs. Wier declares in an affidavit, are parts of dresses she bought in Wyoming. Both men are prominent in army circles.

UNIONIST ADMITS MURDER.

Confesses He Killed Detective in Labor Trouble, but Cannot Be Tried Again.

COLUMBUS (O.), June 5.—Leo Cagle, a member of the Iron Molders' Union of Wheeling, W. Va., confessed in the United States District Court here today that he killed Detective John J. Reardon of Pittsburgh at Steubenville, O., in 1916, during a period of labor trouble.

Cagle was tried over a year ago, refused to take the stand, and was acquitted. Having been in jeopardy once, another trial on the same charge is barred.

Cagle's confession resulted in speedy dismissal of a suit by Reardon's administrator to collect $5000 damages from Jefferson county because of Reardon's death. An agreed order was entered allowing the dead man's heirs $1500.

SCORES INDIAN EDUCATION.

Student of Aborigines Tells Senate Committee American System Has Proven a Failure.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Mrs. Laura Kellogg, a student of the American Indian, told the Senate Indian Affairs Committee today only when the bureau was abolished and the Indian allowed to fight out his own problem of existence would the red-man return to the good place he once occupied. She suggested the establishment of model villages to be conducted by the Indians themselves. Mrs. Kellogg condemned the Indian education system and said that it had proved a failure.

ORDERS THREE BATTLESHIPS.

Great Britain to Increase Navy Because of Canada's Rejection of Appropriation Bill.

LONDON, June 5.—The British government has decided to lay down three battleships of the present year's naval programme immediately instead of next March as originally intended. This measure is taken in consequence of the rejection by the Canadian Senate of the naval aid bill to appropriate $15,000,000 for the construction of three dreadnaughts for the British navy. Winston Spencer Churchill, First Lord of the Admiralty, announced the government's decision in the House of Commons today.

BRITISH navy will spend $15,000,000 this year. It is impossible to spend and more.

FIFTY MILLIONS FOR NEW WORK.

Espee Asks Authority to Issue Trust Notes.

Fast Sum for Improvements on the Pacific Coast.

Depot at Los Angeles Among Betterments Discussed.

RAILROAD RECORD.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—In furtherance of a plan for extensive improvements over the system, including construction work in Louisiana, Texas and California, the Southern Pacific Company made application today to the Railroad Commission of California for permission to issue $50,000,000 in two-year 5 per cent. collateral trust notes. The application states that a part of the money is to be used in supplying additional facilities for the Atlantic steamship lines controlled by the company.

The petition states that the Southern Pacific estimates its capital requirements for the year 1918 at $48,546,000, of which it will supply $14,546,000 from earnings.

The thirty millions to be derived from the sale of the notes are intended to be applied as follows:

Reimbursement of treasury for cash expended representing a part of capital investments heretofore made and not included in the following:

Cash payments for equipment in addition to equipment trust notes $1,466,000.

Additions to Atlantic steamship lines $1,743,000.

Additions to facilities of Pacific system $1,743,000.

Allowances for contingencies yet undetermined $1,507,000.

Total $4,460,000.

NINE MILLIONS ON COAST.

The nine millions and more to be spent in California and on the Pacific Coast stand for new construction and the continuance of extensions under way; improvements in and additions to electric lines, additional terminal facilities, bridges, culverts and shops; but the apportionment among these items is not specified.

"I should like to be able to tell you just where the money will be spent," said W. R. Scott of the company, "but I can't and neither can any officer of the company."

"We know about what we shall have to spend, but the final plan has not been perfected. Whether we shall be able to build new stations at Los Angeles and Sacramento, I cannot yet say."

TO DIVIDE ESPEE STOCK.

St. Paul Federal Court Fixes Date to Hear Eastern Disposition Plan of Hamilton Line.

ST. PAUL (Minn.), June 5.—The Union Pacific Railroad Company applied in St. Paul today to Federal Judge Sanborn, Hook and Smith, sitting in the District Court for the District of Utah, for an order fixing the time for the hearing upon the first and second amended plans for the disposition of the stock of the Southern Pacific Company in the matter of the division of the combination between the two. The time and place of hearing were fixed at 10 a. m. on June 12, 1918, in St. Paul.

An order was made that the petition for the hearing should be filed with the clerk of the District Court in Utah.

The plans are:

First—That the stock of the Southern Pacific Company owned by the Union Pacific Company shall be offered for public subscription at a minimum price and that only such an amount of said stock shall be designated by the court, if any, shall be allotted to subscribers who are stockholders of the Union Pacific Railroad Company.

Second—That the entire stock shall be transferred to a trustee approved by the court and that certificates of interest representing the stock so deposited shall be issued by the trustee, which certificates of interest shall carry no voting right, or other incident of stock ownership, except the right to share in the dividends collected by the trustee, and that said certificates of interest shall be exchangeable for the deposited stock upon filing an affidavit to the effect that the applicant does not own any shares of the capital stock of the Union Pacific Company. The certificates of interest are to be offered for subscription to stockholders of the Union Pacific Railroad Company.

The petition prays for the approval of both plans and for a reasonable time within which to elect under which plan to proceed and to offer the stock under the first plan or the certificates of interest under the second plan.

ADOPT TWO-CENT RATE.

Uniform Passenger Tariff for Conventions in West Will Prevail. Stricter Rule for Lost Tickets.

CHICAGO, BUREAU OF THE TIMES, June 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In pursuance of a policy adopted some time ago, railroads connected with the Western Passenger Association decided today to charge a uniform fare of 2 cents a mile in each direction to conventions in western territory, this year.

A rule also was adopted providing for the publishing of a notice in passenger tariffs that railroads will not grant a refund for lost or stolen tickets except in cases where a satisfactory showing is made that such tickets have not been used.

SCOW SPLITS; FOUR DROWN.

Crew of Grand Trunk Construction Boat Death in Fraser River, Alberta.

EDMONTON (Alberta), June 5.—Caught in the swirling waters of the Fraser River, Grand Canyon, the Rocky Mountaineer, a scow belonging to Grand Trunk Pacific Railway contractors, was split in two today and four of its crew of eight men drowned. The remaining four reached shore.

It was reported that another quartette of river men had drowned when their raft was wrecked.

CATCH ALLEGED CRACKSMAN.

San Francisco Police Believe They Have Captured Man Responsible for Many Robberies.

San Francisco, June 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Frank Smith, alias Fred Ledderman, said by the police to have perpetrated more than a dozen safe robberies in and around San Francisco, was captured in Bohemian Grove, near Guerneville today by a posse. He was brought to the city prison in San Francisco.

The police say Smith is one of the cleverest cracksmen ever in their toils. They say he operated by working on the combinations of safes with electric drills.

Among the crimes which the police lay to Smith is the robbing of the safe in the Neimann saloon of $500 on December 4, last; the robbery of the Bohemian Cafe, and many other robberies.

Nick Renicker, a former Alameda saloon-keeper, and Richard Lewis, both supposed to have been Smith's partners, serving time in San Quentin. Renicker is under a sentence of one year and Lewis seven years.

For months a search had been made for Smith. Sheriff Smith of Sonoma county, Sheriff Barnett of Alameda county, and Detective Nolan of the San Francisco police department recently started in the pursuit that ended at Bohemian Grove.

"I guess I'm the man you're looking for," Smith is said to have remarked as he was arrested.

ENRAGED SPOUSE KILLS THREE.

Husband Missing His Wife Wreaks Vengeance on Her Family and Shoots and Rites Policeman.

CANTON (O.), June 5.—Enraged, he said, because he came home and found his wife missing, Robert Roach, a laborer, went to the home of his wife's parents tonight and shot and killed his mother-in-law, sister-in-law and 16-month-old baby, and fatally wounded another sister-in-law. Later, when his arrest was attempted, he shot a member of the Canton police force in the leg and bit another man in the hand.

After the shooting, Roach took refuge in an upstairs room and attempted to asphyxiate himself. He was captured and revived.

DRINK HABIT TREATED AT HOME.

The Neal Institute at 945 South Olive Street, Los Angeles, and 160 Hill Street, Ocean Park, California, are really large, comfortable homes, where hundreds of drinking men and women have been treated and restored to sober, useful lives.

The Neal Home Treatment is the same as the Institute Treatment and can be administered at the home of the patient by wife, mother or sister, with the same assurance of success. The Neal Drink Habit Treatment is a safe, sure, vegetable remedy that removes the craving and necessity for drink in three days without the use of hypodermic injections.

Don't postpone taking treatment because you do not wish to go to the Neal Institute, but send for the Neal Home Treatment and be sober men and women—masters of yourselves. Call and get our proof and references, or write at phone, for book of information. Phone Broadway 4605; A4672.

Chalmers "Six"
You know what that expression means when applied to a horse—especially if used by one who knows horses.

What a thoroughbred among horseflesh, the Chalmers "Six" is among motor cars. And we use the term exactly—as the old horseman would use it—and not in the careless speech of the grandstand.

For the Chalmers "Six" rings true to the thoroughbred definition—"pure bred and of running stock."

Staunch of frame and sleek, powerful, full of life, alert and eager, yet easily controlled—this great car has all the thoroughbred qualities.

Clean-cut in appearance, trim, graceful, well-groomed, the "Six" gives the same eye delight as a handsome, proud-blooded race-horse.

And the "Six" is a pedigree car, too. Its predecessor cerns were used in buildings which they are engaged in erecting. The committee of international labor men conducting the strike, received a telegram yesterday from the national metal trades department of the American Federation of Labor that this organization has started a similar campaign along the government line.

FIGHT TO A FINISH.
"This is to be fought to the finish," was the statement given out today by the committee. "The strikers will take the Governor's advice and will stand firm for a 20 per cent. increase and no compromise. We believe they have been fair in all their dealings and have been dealt with very unjustly by a man who is not only their employer, but is Governor of this commonwealth."

Reports were made by the committee that other international officers are coming to Boston to assist in conducting the strike. Strikers also say the Sturtevant concern has orders on hand for 2000 machines for the General Electric Company and that only 700 are so far completed. They further declare that the concern has been given a contract to supply 125 vacuum cleaners per day for a large corporation and also has contracts for turbines with various corporations. They say that even if the Sturtevant company is able to get out any machines on these orders, with the blowers, that organized labor will be able to prevent their use by calling strikes on every job where they are being installed.

THIRTY-EIGHT SILK WORKERS
FACE PRISON SENTENCE.

Seventeen-year-old Girl and I.W. W. Agitators Found Guilty—William D. Haywood and Associates Will Be Tried Next Week at Patterson by Foreign Jury.

BY A. F. NIGHT WRITER TO THE TIMES.
PATERSON (N. J.) June 5.—Thirty-eight silk workers, who as pickets gathered in front of a mill during strike disturbances on April 25, were convicted of unlawful assemblage to-night by a county court jury.

The defendants, one of them a 17-year-old girl, each faces a prison sentence of from one to three years, or a fine of any amount up to $100, or both imprisonment and fine. They probably will be sentenced tomorrow. The jury deliberated less than two hours. Three other defendants were acquitted. Many of the prisoners are members of the Industrial Workers of the World.

disobeyed police orders to move and whether the law was violated when the men gathered near the mill doors.

Hannah Silverman, the girl prisoner, was described by the prosecution as a leader. While attending today the arraignment of a striker arrested last night she disturbed the court and was given a twenty-day sentence in jail.

TO REGULATE PIPE LINES.
Honey and Oil Men Will Push Bill in Congress to Make Them Common Carriers.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, June 5.—[Special Dispatch.] Francis J. Honey, Tim Spellacy and John R. Elliott are here on various matters connected with the oil industry, but all are interested in an effort to have a bill passed by Congress to make pipe lines common carriers. Honey says that the plan is to have a condition imposed on pipe lines crossing public lands that they shall carry oil for any one offering it. He says that the Legislature passed a bill making pipe lines common carriers and he found that Senator Works had introduced such a bill, but that its provisions were not broad enough. On suggestion after Honey, Senator Works agreed to amend his bill.

"The oil industry is at its height in California," said Honey today. "The Standard is evidently reaching out for the small concerns and is gathering them in one by one. It is keeping down the price and making it unprofitable for the little fellows, so they are gradually being forced out of the business. Making pipe lines common carriers would help the situation. I am interested in seeing the suit of the government to forfeit oil lands held by the Southern Pacific pushed, and I shall see the Attorney-General about it."

MOLINEAUX WRITES PLAY.
Belasco Will Stage Production of Principal in One of Gotham's Most Famous Murder Trials.

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, June 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Roland B. Molineaux, principal in one of New York's most famous murder trials, has written a play which will be produced next fall by David Belasco.

Molineaux was accused of having killed Mrs. Adams. It was charged that he sent a bottle of headache medicine containing cyanide of potassium to Harry Cornell and that Cornell's landlady had taken it instead.

Thoroughbred Stock

You know what that expression means when applied to a horse—especially if used by one who knows horses.

What a thoroughbred is among horseflesh, the Chalmers "Six" is among motor cars. And we use the term exactly—as the old horseman would use it—and not in the careless speech of the grandstand.

For the Chalmers "Six" fits true to the thoroughbred definition—"pure bred and of running stock."

Staunch of frame and sinew, powerful, full of life, alert and eager, yet easily controlled—this great car has all the thoroughbred qualities.

Clean-cut in appearance, trim, graceful, well-groomed, the "Six" gives the same eye-appeal as a handsome, proud, blooded race-horse.

And the "Six" is a pedigreed car, too. Its predecessors—Chalmers "30" and Chalmers "Thirty-six"—were winners before it—victors on track and road; record breakers in sales, too.

The "Six" is built in Chalmers shops under the direction of men who take as much pride in a fine motor car as horsemen ever took in fine racing stock.

And this great car, with such "stuff" in it (as the horsemen say), with such lineage behind it, such quality and breeding in every line of it, we sell you at a medium price—$2750.00 for the 7-passenger Touring Car.

More satisfaction, service, pride of possession, you cannot buy. Better performance you cannot find in any car men have yet built. Everything in the way of convenience and luxury this "Six" supplies you.

May we offer you proof in the car itself? Please phone or call at our salesroom.

TRAP LAID BY CHILD'S GRAVE.

Father of Disaster Victim Hunted as Embeswiler.

Officer at Funeral to Seize Missing Postmaster.

Wife and Mother, Also Hurt, Kept in Ignorance.

The call of the blood, depending on by the United States government to bring to the open grave of his little daughter a man badly wanted for amusement, proved less strong than the fear of arrest at Long Beach on Wednesday. But in failing, it added a strange chapter to the grim history of the auditorium disaster in the beach city.

At the grave's edge, where the last sad words were said over the body of little Margaret Reed, 12 years old, and thirty-seventh victim of the pier catastrophe, a slight, quietly-dressed man mingled with the little group of mourners and watched their faces keenly. No one recognized him as a postal inspector from Los Angeles, nor suspected that he was there to see Miss B. Reed, father of the little dead girl, should parental love lure him alleged thief of government funds, to leave the hiding place where he has been vainly sought for weeks and risk prison bars for a last look at his child's face. He did not come, nor was Mrs. Reed, who lies at the Seaside Hospital as a result of the same disaster, able to throw any light on his whereabouts.

Reed is a defaulter of government postal funds, according to the officers. The shortage is $1075, consisting of money order funds, taken when Reed was postmaster at Dale, San Bernardino county, a position he held for about three years. The total embezzlements of the office were about $175 a year.

Dale is a little mining town, in the heart of the desert, and it is nearly fifty miles from any considerable settlement. In the office of the fact that it is but a small place, there is a considerable money order business, and the thefts were confined to receipts for the money order business, accounts proper are all right.

FOR GAMBLING DEBTS.

For some time before Reed left Dale, from which place he sent his family to Long Beach about March 1, the officers say, he was in debt, and that he had been gambling. When he went away, he gave the key to the office to N. K. Fairbanks, who kept a saloon next to the postoffice, telling him that he was going away indefinitely. A few days later his bondsman, who were obligated for $1800, became suspicious and made complaint to the postoffice authorities. There was an investigation and the hunt for Reed began.

It is charged that, a few days before Reed left Dale, Fairbanks, the bondsman, purchased three $500 money orders for transmission to his bank in Springfield, Utah. This is a part of the money that Reed is supposed to have taken with him. The officers think he lost it all at the gaming table and that that fact caused him to make up his mind to flee.

He sent his wife and family to Long Beach and for some time they have been living at No. 552 Elm street, in that city. The wife and little daughter, Margaret, were in the pier on the pier on Empire Day, and went down into the death pit at the entrance of the pier. The head and spine of this child were injured and she suffered several broken ribs; the mother's right shoulder was dislocated. Little Margaret died. The mother will recover.

WIFE DOESN'T KNOW IT.

Belief of her child and her husband missing, as she believes, Mrs. Reed is very anxious that her husband should get rid of his debt, but that is where, he would locate he did not know. Since then he has not been heard from, so far as the Federal officers know. All of the letters and inquiries of the wife and her parents, who reside in Pasadena, have been returned or came to nothing.

An examination of the affairs of the Dale postoffice was made—the first in three years. It was shown that the major part of the money was caused early in the present year. The sale of the three money orders to Fairbanks, the saloon man, would account for most of it. His bondsman will make it good.

EXCHANGE'S ELECTION.

Directors of the exchange yesterday elected officers for the ensuing twelve months as follows: Mr. Campbell, president; Paul Peters, first vice-president; Fred Pallas, second vice-president; and Paul K. Phillips, secretary. The other members of the directorate are D. M. Dorman, John Fisher, A. R. Holmes and A. M. Klein. The difficulty which arose over the election was done away with when W. W. Jacobs, retiring president of the exchange, resigned from the tentatively elected board. The directorate yesterday passed a resolution thanking Jacobs for his long and efficient service on the exchange. He has been prominent in the body for some eight or nine years.

DAY EACH TO WOO, WIN, BUY TROUSSEAU, WED, GO.

A Russian banker's bride.

Who decided to become such on the day's notice. Another day sufficed to get her trousseau, a third—yesterday—was devoted to the wedding and the departure for St. Petersburg. She was Miss Norma Marcella Martin of this city. She is Mrs. Albert Dorlaie of the Russian capital.

A YOUNG banker of St. Petersburg came to America to learn our banking methods. Incidentally he found here a wife, and thereby hangs a pretty story.

Five years ago Albert A. Dorlaie, who came to America to learn our banking methods, went to San Francisco from the Russian capital. While he was cashier of the Russo-Japanese Bank of the Bay City he met Miss Norma Marcella Martin of Los Angeles, who was visiting her uncle, Ferdinand Nicholas. The young man also is of French descent and an accomplished linguist. The young persons were able to converse with each other in two or three different languages.

Dorlaie said that he was delighted with America. Miss Martin told that she had a deep interest in Russia and the frozen city of the Czar. The proposal of marriage was made and the young couple were married in St. Petersburg. They were married yesterday morning at the home of the young woman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Martin, of No. 1254 Elder street and left in the afternoon for St. Petersburg, via New York, London, Paris and Berlin.

Dorlaie is now secretary of the Russo-French Bank of St. Petersburg. He has a wide acquaintance in the social circles and American colony in the Russian capital and his wife will soon find friends in the distant city.

Mrs. Dorlaie is a graduate of the Los Angeles High School and a popular member of the Phi Rho Sigma Society. Her friends will regret to learn that she has gone so far away, and Mrs. Dorlaie said that they will return to Los Angeles for a visit in two years.

ONLY ONE BILLBOARD FOR EACH VACANT LOT.

IF SUCH a thing is possible, the groups of real estate signs that adorn every vacant lot and empty corner in Los Angeles and which have brought with them a rather unenviable reputation through exploitation of the national magazine, are to be destroyed for kindling wood. At the annual luncheon of the Realty Board, after the report of directors of statistical information of interest to the members, James R. H. Wagner, in his first address as president of the organization, called vivid attention to the glaring need of doing away with these unsightly things in order to continue Los Angeles as the city beautiful.

"No city in the United States has ever worked out a satisfactory method of abolishing real estate signs. It is up to Los Angeles to take the lead in this, as in other affairs, and set the example to the world," he said. He spoke of several possible systems of accomplishing the desired end and suggested a single board bearing the words, "For sale, apply 207, Realty Board," to be placed on each vacant lot. Six or eight numbers might be placed on one board and the numbers advertised by the firms in the papers. This would give all real estate dealers an equal chance.

President Wagner explained this as merely his own idea and called for suggestions from the entire board for a future date. He spoke of what had been done last year by the board and outlined things that should be accomplished during his term of office. He praised the work of the retiring president, Charles G. Andrews, and presented him with a beautiful silver loving cup, expressing the sentiments of the board.

Past President Andrews called the meeting to order and in a few words discussed the results of the work of the real estate men in a combined effort to uplift the standards of the business. He paid a warm tribute to Secretary Philip Wilson, who presented the annual review, a bulky and detailed statement of things well done.

"Los Angeles has maintained its reputation for keeping up the largest realty organization in America through its motto of Honesty, Harmony and Dignity in All Real Estate Transactions," is the golden text of board today is 432. Accounts of activity in suppressing illegitimate operators, special investigation of stock-selling corporations and reports of their methods where not to the interest of investors; the installation of a comprehensive map-room; publication of an official organ; laws protecting the investor; the fight against the water main extension charges; the distribution of literature through the United States and in foreign lands telling of California work for the industrial bureau; charity work; classification of real estate men, and numerous other topics make up the report.

Treasurer T. C. Bundy reported that the Realty Board is in good financial condition. Receipts for the year were nearly $25,000 and a bank balance of more than one-tenth of that remains after a heavy subscription to the various relief funds, the spending of 1917 on entertainment of the California State Realty Federation, monthly links and running expenses.

The officers installed in addition to President Wagner are W. W. Miles, first vice-president; Thomas C. Bundy, second vice-president; Herbert L. Cornish, treasurer; Philip D. Wilson, secretary; Harold Cook and C. C. Tatum, new members of the governing board. Various standing committees were appointed by President Wagner.

BEATING GIVEN TO WRONG MAN.

Reporter's Double Suffers; Two Are Arrested.

Blood Flows and Fur Flies in Quiet Bairdstown.

Proposed Girls' Home Stirs Up the Community.

A community greatly agitated over the proposed establishment of a home for unfortunate girls, two of Bairdstown's representative citizens under arrest for beating a supposed newspaper reporter and an excited session before the supervisors yesterday are some of the features developing from an indignation meeting held in the suburban town Tuesday night.

F. T. Wiltman and H. C. Bowers were arraigned before Justice Young yesterday by a group of excited friends who were witnesses to the admitted mix-up on the village green. Deputy Ong was asked to make a complaint charging assault with intent to commit murder, but he did not think the circumstances justified so grave a charge. However, the complaint alleges a felony.

Justice Young apparently did not take a very serious view of the altercation, for he released both defendants upon their own recognizances and set the preliminary for the 23rd inst.

CAUSE OF THE ROW.

Some time ago the Nazarine Church secured some land outside of the town with the charitable purpose of establishing a rescue home. The plan did not find favor with all of the suburbanites. Certain members of the social set started a counter agitation. Wiltman and Bowers say that nearly all the residents are against the establishment of the home, and that the church's community is not a suitable place. Wiltman was one of the strong opponents of the home, and he was accompanied by a large crowd of leading citizens on Tuesday night.

The "fly in the ointment" was when it became known that a newspaper man who lives in the vicinity was present in the hall. He was discovered taking copious notes by one of the most "red" residents, and he was the community, who looked over his shoulder and read what he was writing.

HIS DOUBLE SUFFER.

The meeting broke up with a sound like unto the burning of locks. The reporter stood outside for a time and then went home unmolested. His double trouble was the social set, who were standing outside the building that serves for all meetings intended to preserve the civic rights of the community. He was accompanied in loud and profane language he says.

He was asked if he was not the aforementioned reporter. He admits reporting on the matter, but says he was not. Sangrinary combat ensued. Wiltman and Bowers said yesterday that they suffered but if they did they owe little credit to it. On the contrary Wiltman showed a deep gash over one eye, a closed optic and various scratches and bruises.

He avers to the complaint and then proceeded to the meeting of the supervisors where the Bairdstown spokesmen were protesting against the establishment of a rescue home in a purely residence district. Wiltman was possibly gratified to see Constable Woodbury enter the room and tap Wiltman on the shoulder. Six police were in the room. Later Bowers and Wiltman were taken before the magistrates.

The supervisors believe the complaint of the residents against the construction of a rescue home for women is just. "We will pass an ordinance Monday," said Chairman Priddy, "which will forbid the establishment of a home for fallen women within half a mile of a school-house or dwelling, or words to that effect. We have instructed County Counsel Hill to draft such an ordinance."

Several informal legal opinions obtained from members of the bar yesterday were to the effect that such an ordinance is unconstitutional, as the purpose of the Nazarine Church is a beneficent one. Police officers can be exercised as to the opening of saloons or questionable resorts, they said, but not as to places where morality and pure living are to be taught.

There will be a delegation of Bairdstown citizens present Monday when the board takes up the question of the ordinance.

COLLEGE LADS' JINKS.

Something Lurid on Tap for the Cruise of Daddy Noah to the Raymond on Flag Day.

A Harvard, Yale and Princeton jinks will be held at the Raymond Hotel, Pasadena, on Saturday afternoon, June 14. It is announced as the "second cruise of Daddy Noah, held under bond of the Triple College Bund," and it is further stated that "no suffragettes will be allowed on the cruise." The "mess and menu" is announced as follows: "The ark will be fed at sundown, with rations in harmony with the spirit of the cruise. Grog will be piped intermittently, and hypodermically in a crisis. Proper quarters have been provided for the Owl, Lampy and Cible, the sacred bird, and attending booze bugs, barties and hotdogs."

ON UGLY CHARGES.

Frank Elder, 18 years old, who conducts a printing shop at No. 1549 Court street, was arrested yesterday by officers of the Metropolitan Squad, charged with contributing to the delinquency of girls—Catherine Gerlack, No. 1534 Westlake avenue, aged 15, whose brother is employed in the printing shop, and Fern Punter, also 15, No. 322 Brent street. Elder, after his arrest, confessed to the charges in reference to the two girls who are mentioned, according to the police.

PROTRACTED WALK.

Handman's After-Church Promenade Has Lasted Nearly Two Weeks and Wife Anxiously Seeks Him.

The strange disappearance of Joseph Flynn, Sunday, May 26, just after he had returned home from church, is causing great concern to his wife. The family lives at No. 6815 Marston way.

Mrs. Flynn said yesterday that her husband left the house saying that he would take a short walk while she prepared dinner. He did not return and she has received no message from him.

The missing man is 35 years old. His hair is black and his eyes dark blue. He wore a brown suit, a black felt hat and black shoes. The Flynns came to the city five weeks ago from Minneapolis.

PRIEST ARRESTS GIRL IN CHURCH.

GOES TO CATHEDRAL TO PRAY TURNED THIEF INSTEAD.

Two Months' Mystery of Continued Theft Is Solved by Young Woman's Confession That She Stole Worshippers' Purse While They Are at the Altar.

In the Cathedral of St. Vibiana, where she had crept several months ago as a penniless orphan to find comfort and aid, a thief because of the temptation she found there, Miss Annie Murphy was arrested last night by Rev. Edward Brady, assistant rector.

While she sat in the Confessional, Annie Murphy plied the purses they left in the pews. She was turned over to detectives by the priest. It is the first time in the city's police annals that a woman has been arrested by a priest or in a cathedral.

When she came to the Central Station last night, the woman confessed to the many thefts that have for several months been perplexing and alarming the priests and worshippers at the historic Main-street cathedral.

According to her own story, Annie Murphy, using the alias of Annie Miller, a 16-year-old orphan, came to Los Angeles several months ago. She had lost her parents when young, and had lived by the charity of several relatives of the small city of her native town. The young woman had never stolen before she came to Los Angeles, she said. For a time she tried to get work, but without success. She was a trained nurse, but found the ranks of that profession over-full here, for her, as it is slight and not in good health, she was not wanted, and she had no resource to live on.

One night, she said when she was in despair of being able to earn her living, and meditated suicide, she started to walk along the streets to make up her mind what she would do. She passed St. Vibiana's Cathedral at No. 248 South Main street, and being of Catholic faith, crept in to listen to the services. She was ill-dressed, she said, and nearly starved. While sitting in a pew, a well-dressed woman left her purse there and walked to the altar. Annie Miller could not resist the temptation. She quietly left the house of worship and found she had $25.

For several days she hesitated before returning, waiting until her money was gone and she was hungry again. Then she repeated the theft. The method of getting money seemed so safe and so profitable that she became a regular visitor of the cathedral, but coming to steal instead of to pray. The police, informed of the constant thefts, were at a loss to identify the criminal.

The church was filled with worshippers, attending confessional last night, the Thursday before the first Friday in the month. Six priests were in the confessional, and Reverend Father Brady was not engaged for the time. He was roaming up and down the aisles of the cathedral, where he saw Annie Murphy stealthily take a purse.

He asked the girl to accompany him to the vestry where she confessed her thefts. To protect the church members, he called the police. The girl was living with Richard Flattery, a musician in one of the downtown cabarets, occupying rooms with him on Hill street. The police will take him into custody unless he can prove all innocence of connection with the girl thief.

TWILL BE GREAT PICNIC.

Gas and Electric Corporation to Entertain Employees and Friends Numbering Several Thousand.

Employees of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation and their families will hold their fourth annual picnic at Baldwin's Ranch tomorrow. The gas company expects to entertain 3500 persons. C. S. Vance, third vice-president of the corporation, has been busy for weeks arranging the affair. Three special trains will take the crowd over the Santa Fe, the first train leaving at 8:10 a. m. the second at 9 and the third at 3:10. Transportation, lunch and every amusement feature is provided free by the corporation for its employees and their friends and families.

The list of things to eat sounds like the commissary department of an army. There will be 80 gallons of ice cream, 550 pounds of dressed chickens, 400 pounds of boned veal, 254 pounds of boned ham, 461 dozen boiled eggs, 700 two-pound loaves of bread, 45 gallons of ripe olives, 430 pounds of cookies, 160 pounds of coffee and 15 bunches of bananas. The in-between bites 4000 cornucopias and 2500 sacks of peanuts will be distributed free.

A program of athletic sports has been arranged. In a baseball game the office force will contend against the mechanical force for a silver cup presented last year by Walter B. Cline, president of the corporation. It was won last year by the office force. A tug of war will be held between four teams for a new silver cup presented this year by President Cline.

Five departments will contest in a field meet in which the events will be broad jumps, shot put, half mile and broad jumps, shot put, half mile and one-mile relay race between four teams of four men each.

THEY SAY WAR CAN NEVER BE.

Distinguished Japanese Here on Peace Mission.

Express Confidence in Result of Negotiations.

Guests of Local Chamber of Commerce Directors.

They talk of war between the United States of America and Japan is impossible. It can never be. Every consideration forbids it," said Dr. Juchichi Soyeda, honorary member of the Tokyo Chamber of Commerce, formerly Vice-Minister of Finance and until recently governor of the Industrial Bank of Japan, last night. Dr. Soyeda further asserts that the controversy between the two nations arising from the alien land laws is susceptible of peaceful and satisfactory adjustment when both Americans and Japanese come to understand all phases of the matters in question.

Dr. Soyeda and Tadao Kamiya, honorary chief secretary of the Tokyo Chamber of Commerce, who are visiting this country to convey expressions of esteem and good will from the affiliated Chambers of Commerce of Japan, arrived in this city yesterday. They were accompanied by K. A. Hunt, secretary of the Japanese Association of America, and S. O. Lund of San Francisco. Their purpose is to interview as many of their countrymen as possible and to learn as much as possible of the conditions with a view to furthering harmonious relations between the countries and to assist in the negotiations and discussions relative to alien land laws.

They were entertained at luncheon at the California Club yesterday by the directors of the Chamber of Commerce. Capt. H. A. Osborn presided. Addresses of greeting and assurances of good will were made by Messrs. Simpson, Bulk, Chase and Midway. Dr. Soyeda in responding formally conveyed greetings and good wishes from the Japanese organizations.

In explanation of their mission to this country Dr. Soyeda said: "We are here to express condolence to our countrymen in this country and to make observations. We desire to know how they are doing and what their opinions are. At the same time we wish to wait with patience and in calmness the final judgment to be rendered by the American government and the American people, in both of whom we repose great hope and trust for justice and fair play."

"As a nation we have always been looking to this country ever since we opened our doors to the world as our kindest and most helpful friend. Therefore the sentiment that prevails in Japan and among our people here is most favorable to this country."

It has been to San Francisco, Sacramento, Stockton, Fresno and now Los Angeles visiting our people and preaching to them to keep good order and to be true to their faith in this great people and republic. Everywhere by views and admonitions have been received with the utmost satisfaction and approval. At one meeting all the people assembled showed great emotion.

"The very seat of that land bill—Sacramento—I spoke to a large audience of our people, more than 1800. I never before saw such an orderly and peaceful gathering in my long experience as a public speaker. Even as the remotest reaches they approve and accept our advice to preserve peace and order in a degree which could not, perhaps, be expected from the people at home placed in the same situation."

"Therefore it is my firm belief that, by the able, fair and just conclusion to be arrived at between the governments at Washington and Tokio, everything will be settled harmoniously and satisfactorily. At least this is my sincerest prayer for the two countries and for those hard-working, orderly people who are patiently waiting for the final adjustment of this unsettled situation."

"Indeed the two nations on the borders of the Pacific are traditionally united in close bonds. As far as the future there are many vexatious questions and problems which must be solved by the united action of these nations, such as keeping peace and order in the Orient, avoiding any conflict between the races and cementing the East and West to bring under the day of universal peace and one brotherhood."

WENTWORTH SCHOOL FOR GIRLS. The Intermediate department of the Wentworth School for Girls yesterday gave a "Pageant of the Nations" with music and dancing to mark the close of the school term. Following was the program:

Three German songs. Ruth Hill, Mary Jane Butler, Florence Lewis, Margaret Haskell.

Song from Japan. Louise Chandler, Adele Vance, Olive Clark, Marie Newman, Daisy Damsiger, Romaine Peterson, Catherine Howard.

Swedish folk dances—Ruth Hill, Marie Newman, Daisy Damsiger, Romaine Peterson, Catherine Howard.

FOR BETTER PHONE SERVICE.

Improved service is promised telephone users in the Compton, Hyatt, Gardena and Monrovia districts as a result of arrangements just made by the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company and the Consolidated Utilities Company for the joint sharing of facilities. The first-named company controls the telephone lines in the four districts, while the second company controls the power lines. LURID VERBAL PYROTECHNICS.

FOURTH OF JULY FIREWORKS GO OFF IN ADVANCE.

Committee Balks at Smallness of Fund Offered by the City Council and Threatens to Quit—Mayor Attempts to Shift Blame to a Member of the Committee.

There were fireworks at the Fourth of July Celebration Committee meeting in the Mayor's office yesterday afternoon, though there appears just now to be small chance of any at the celebration itself—if there is one. The trouble was all about finances. A special committee had gone before the City Council on Tuesday and pleaded for $1500 for celebration purposes. The Council voted to give $750, practically all that remains in the celebration fund out of the $5000 allowed by the city charter for such purposes and appropriated by the Budget Committee at the beginning of the year.

When the Fourth of July Celebration Committee assembled, its ardor was dampened by the receipt of this news. Willis H. Booth, who has been made chairman of the Finance Committee, declined to serve in that capacity if this entailed an appeal to the merchants for funds. He declared that business men are over-run with appeals and that the patriotic celebration should fall upon all the city taxpayers.

Others of the committee took a similar stand. Secretary Zeeland, of the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association, particularly voicing this sentiment. He moved that a committee be appointed to go before the Council and ask for $1000, and that the Council be told that if this amount was not furnished the committee would decline to serve.

Then Councilmen Whitten and McKenzie were caught and brought into the meeting. They explained the city's financial situation and that the Council is powerless to use more than the $5000 allowed for celebrations, because of charter provisions, and that they had given the last of the fund to the committee.

This did not satisfy, and at times it appeared as though the 4th of July celebration would be abandoned right there.

Finally it was decided that each chairman of committee should make a careful estimate of the necessary expenses of giving an afternoon and evening celebration at Exposition Park and report at the meeting to be held next Thursday afternoon. Upon these reports will rest the final result. If it is found that a creditable showing cannot be made with the money available, the entire celebration will be abandoned, so far as the present committee is concerned.

An incident of the meeting was a lively tilt between the Mayor and Zeeland. When the committee was on the point of voting to abandon the entire project, the Mayor arose and declared he had done his duty in calling the men together and that he regretted the outcome. Turning to Zeeland he declared: "And you, Mr. Zeeland, are responsible for the situation."

"What is an insult to me that I will not stand," cried the man addressed. "I wasn't born in this country, but I've lived here forty years, and I'm just as patriotic and as good a citizen as you are, Mr. Mayor."

"Well, you don't show it," responded the Mayor.

"I show common sense, that's all," replied Zeeland, and then matters settled down again.

"I show common sense, that's all," replied Zeeland, and then matters settled down again.

Miss Teresa Anderson.

One of the principal witnesses against J. S. McNutt, who was bound over to the Superior Court yesterday after the story of a mysterious accident at Burbank had been told for the first time.

Here a veiled lady, "Truth," takes "Truth" and his companion by the hand and leads them to the "House of Knowledge," where "Truth," at the feast of "Science," learns many things and is declared the heir to the fair wealth of "Agriculture." In this final scene the prize Jersey halter of the school, neck wreathed with roses, and horns crowded with flowers, is led in by ringing bells to typify the fairness of the land and the fair heritage of those who will serve the soil and work with kind and cheerful hands. It is a pretty little opera, savoring of the symbolic school. Louis Woodson Curtis, head of the music department of the institution, is the composer. Harold A. Clark, teacher of music, wrote the words. Miss Agnes Peterson, another English teacher, the lyrics. The costumes were designed by Miss Jessie Jones, the drawing teacher, and were made by the girls of the school.

CLEAR UP MYSTERY OF BURBANK MOTOR SMASH.

THE TERRIFYING experiences of San Fernando road. It was stopped at a winery and wine was brought to the girls, they say. They refused to drink. Under persuasion they accepted the glasses, but tossed out the wine when unobserved. They made a tour of the building. It was a lengthy one, the men drinking heavily, according to the girls' story. Daylight was breaking when the party left the winery. On the way to Burbank McNutt had trouble with the machine, necessitating numerous stops. Both girls declared he was intoxicated and insulted them. After repeated refusals, Miss Davis said he drew a revolver and threatened her with it. She was terribly frightened, but refused to accede. They determined to leave the machine and walk home, but they did not know which way to go. Finally McNutt started the machine. "He said, 'I'll whop it up,'" Miss Davis testified, "and he did. Mr. Darling thought we were going sixty miles an hour. Both of us girls screamed; we were mad with fear. Then came the crash, and when I came to my senses I was in the Burbank Hospital. McNutt's back was broken, her shoulder-blade fractured and she received other serious injuries. Miss Anderson was badly bruised. Darling is still at the hospital, and owing to his condition he could not attend court. McNutt escaped injury.

HUSBAND SEEKS WIFE.

Angeleno sends Photograph of His Spouse to Venice Police and Implores Aid in Locating Her.

VENICE, June 5.—Thinking that his wife, Evelyn, had left him for the pleasures of Venice, Charles Woodridge, who resides at No. 1551 Taylor street, Los Angeles, has written the Chief of Police, asking him to help locate his spouse, whose first name is Evelyn. Woodridge recites that his wife left him three days ago, after posing him in various attitudes and taking photographs of him. Woodridge says he cannot imagine what she wanted with the snap-shots of his face, but he included a picture of his missing wife in his letter. The police are not inclined to get very busy on the case.

A bride's screams when a burglar entered her apartment on Evangelina avenue last night probably saved her valuables and injury. The bride was Mrs. Hammond Newman, who was married a few days ago. When Mrs. Newman saw the head and shoulders of a Topham-dressed burglar, bearing a cane in one hand and a flashlight in the other, appear framed in the bedroom window, she lost no time in weakening the echoes by a long and loud yell. Burglar hastily departed. It is said that the groom slept through the incident.

THE FRIEDMANN CASE.

New York Doctor Will Give Gen. Blue More of the Turtle Serum to Test Its Efficacy.

BY A. P. WHITE WIRE TO THE TIMES.

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Dr. M. A. Strum of New York City, formerly associated with Dr. Friedmann, the Berlin physician who claims to have discovered a cure for tuberculosis, came here tonight to give Surgeon-General Blue of the public health service a quantity of the Friedmann vaccine, with a view to demonstrating its efficacy. He will see the surgeon-general tomorrow. Dr. Friedmann refused to add to the small quantity of his cultures originally furnished the service, or to give any details of the use of his treatment.

The "tips" outwear the gloves.

"The Kayser" SILK Glove

Three generations of American Women have set their "stamp of approval" upon "KAYSER" Gloves—and for over a quarter of a century "KAYSER" Gloves have maintained their supremacy in the glove world.

"KAYSER" Gloves are the result of a lifetime spent in Silk Glove making—in striving for the attainment of that superlative degree of excellence that makes the "KAYSER" Glove the standard, by which all other Silk Gloves are measured.

There is no excuse for accepting the "just as good" kind—"KAYSER" Gloves "cost no more" and carry with them assurance of quality and reliability.

There's a way to tell the genuine—"look in the hem," if you find the name "KAYSER" you have the glove that "don't wear out" at the finger "tips."

A guarantee ticket in every pair.

NOLAN IS FOXY AND SPOILS GREAT BATTLE.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO, June 5.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) With Willie Ritchie and Billy Nolan off at 7 o'clock this morning for the Harbin Springs country and Joe Levy departing at 8 o'clock tonight for Los Angeles, the chances of bringing the two lightweights together on the Fourth at 12 o'clock are altogether remote as to indicate that Grady will be forced to secure some other opponent for Ritchie.

Even though Nolan, stubborn to the last, insisted upon leaving for the mountains as per schedule, Grady felt there was some slight chance of affecting a compromise until the manager of Rivers also declared that he was through with negotiations and would start for home at once to lay "other plans."

While nothing definite was settled today, it looks very much as if Grady may name Bud Anderson as Ritchie's opponent, providing the Northwester boy will accept such weight conditions as are named by Nolan.

Nolan, as of old, tried to show that he is a smart chap, and failed in the attempt. He tried to be too foxy and instead of gaining his point will have to accept a match that will be no picnic for him.

Had Nolan, at the outset, laid his cards on the table and declared once for all what weight he was willing to accept, there might have been a chance to secure an agreement. But Nolan must show himself a good manager and prove his worth in the eyes of the younger, whose ability as a scrapper enables Nolan to earn a living.

The one-time holder of Battling Nelson, first of all, wanted to make the weight 125 pounds at 9 o'clock in the morning. By degrees, he came down to the demands of Joe Rivers until, at a late hour Wednesday night, Nolan offered to allow Ritchie to do 125 pounds at 12 o'clock in the morning.

Such an offer at the outset would have been fair enough, but it is

BREAK THREATENED IN LIGHTWEIGHT DIVISION.

Nolan's Stand Considered High-handed by Uncle Tom and Others Connected With the Boxing Game. What Is a Lightweight—Ritchie May Be Left Out in the Cold.

BY OWEN B. BIRD.

THE lightweight situation can be summed up in a very few words. After three days of argument, Levy and Nolan cannot come to terms in regard to the scheduled July 4 date, which was to have been held at San Francisco. Nolan is holding out for 124 pounds at 9 o'clock and then states that the champion will make absolutely no ringside weight. Levy declines to let Rivers meet Ritchie under these terms. Levy left San Francisco last night to confer with Uncle Tom in regard to fighting here on the Fourth, or with Murphy in San Francisco.

Yesterday McCarey said that Rivers would more than likely fight here on the Fourth. Cross wants to get out of his agreement with Anderson for his battle here. Uncle Tom says he is willing to let him go, as Rivers and Anderson would make the best drawing card in the West for the Fourth. Rivers, himself, wants to fight Welch, Cross, Wolcott, Murphy and Anderson all want to get Ritchie. It is thought that Nolan favors Wolcott or Welch.

Now that Ritchie and Nolan have stepped out of the legitimate lightweight division, they may be left to cool their heels in private. Feeling is strong regarding Nolan's stand and radical steps are soon to be taken to put the lightweight division on its proper basis.

The Meigs, William Nolan and Ritchie are about as popular with the general sporting public at the present time, as a pair of buzzards at an Irish wake. Right or wrong in the stand he takes, Billy Nolan stands as a splendid chance of spoiling the parade and causing one of the grandest ructions in the lightweight division known to the history of the ring.

There are those who say that there never was a definite lightweight limit set at 125. Far be it from me to cast unpleasant comparisons on the screen, but Mr. Nolan forced Joe Gans to more than make the 125 mark in that infamous Goldfield battle.

"Things have come to a fine mess," said Uncle Tom yesterday. "When one of these birds tries to be smart and hold up the whole game, I wish my hands of the entire affair. It is actions like these that make boxing look queer to the thinking citizens of the country, but one man is always the cause of the row and the rest of us have to suffer."

LET TEN RUN. Yes, Uncle Tom was full of commendable wrath. When he was going to bid for, he said: "I have Anderson and Cross signed up, both of them want to jump, so let 'em jump. I am just going to let all of them run around till they are ragged, then they will come back here and fight for me, they always do it."

"I am going to state right here, that I am with Joe Levy in his stand. Little Rivers is a real lightweight, and if he fights a welter, Levy is crazy and I don't think that Joe is any better."

The proposition is just this. If there is a lightweight class, there must be a lightweight limit, otherwise there would be no line of demarcation between the lightweight division and the welter, or, in fact, the feather. For you know if Nolan has his way, the line would work up and down naturally. This, therefore, mixes up three classes, the feathers, the lightweights and the welters at once, besides making the whole question of weight limits, one to be decided before every fight. Just think this over, is it not? Yes, it is not.

RITCHIE A REAL WELTER. When Nolan admits that Ritchie cannot make the accepted lightweight limit he also admits that Ritchie is not a lightweight in the light of regular precedent. If the limit is raised to favor one man it throws out men like Wolcott, Nelson and Rivers, who are and have been the greatest fighters of modern times.

Then Nolan has gone almost too far, and may find himself and meat pocket left for outside, that is, of the lightweight class. There are enough

ANGELS WIN IN RIOT OF RUNS.

Five Heavers Find Their Way Into Box Score.

Crabb and Arrellanes Ousted in Fifth Innings.

Slagle, Lively and Tozer Also Take a Hand.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

ROY CRABB matched his blonde beauty against Frank Arrellanes' brute punch yesterday, and it was about an even thing.

That is, neither of them was there at the finish. By the fifth inning Crabb became convinced that Arrellanes claimed to be better-looking than he is, and quit the place. Not five minutes later, and in the very same round, the Angels treated Arrellanes like the English did the Spanish armada.

Stonewall Jackson Lively finished the game for Sacramento. Slagle pitched a little bit for Los Angeles. Walter, being wise in his day, and generation, however, not from under in time to still retain credit for winning the game, a distinction which might not have been his had he lingered. Bill Tozer, showing as much as he ever did in his whole career, took hold where Slagle let go, pitched the last two and two-thirds innings, and made the Wolves look as meek as a couple of coppers who have been apprehended in the act of raiding a hen-roost.

The score, 5 to 1, in favor of Los Angeles, was the product of two hours and fifteen minutes of excruciating agony.

It was almost anybody's game at almost any old time.

SOME SEE-SAWING. Los Angeles scored a run in the first inning. Sacramento came through with a spectacular shower of three in the second, and with Arrellanes hiding down the position, it looked like good-by and good-night for the home bodies. But Los Angeles came right back and tied the score, taking advantage of two errors in order to accomplish their purpose.

Sacramento then took it upon their shoulders to force the issue. In the fifth, this was supposed to be the last, but didn't, for the very good reason that the Angels got even with Arrellanes by putting over a neat package of five runs in the sixth.

Nolan over led by Harry Wolverton has been doing it with a bit, and the Wolves played along with two more runs in the seventh, thereby covering their considerable un-entireties, as said two runs came during near tying the score again. But the Angels made the margin amply by slugging the thing by planting a single in the eighth, and the "country was saved" again.

Rube Zula, one of our very most useful citizens, was in the line, finishing with one out. He took second on Moore's demise, and Maggart singled him to third. A double steal

Amateur Show FIGHT CLASS.

HAWTREY PUTS ROBERTSON IN COLD STORAGE.

Two Knockouts and One Stopped Bout Feature Opening Rounds of Amateur Boxing Tournament at the Los Angeles Athletic Club Gymnasium Last Night.

BY AL G. WADDELL.

Eight amateur ring stars were put over at the Los Angeles Athletic Club last night which would make some of the professional pugilistic bookings committed in these parts look like brewers' conventions staged in a city town. The occasion was the opening of the Southern California amateur boxing championships, and the scrapping ranged from clean knockouts to "Merry Widow" bouts.

Fred Hawtreys succeeded in putting R. A. Robertson away in the main event, which was the big number of the show.

In the first round Hawtreys scored his man with one of those back-hand kicks of his. Robertson readjusted his ballast and went back after more, which the gentle Hawtreys proceeded to dispense.

Between rounds Ivan Kahn manufactured instructions in Robertson's corner. The round opened with a wild, mulling and a pair of prolonged clinches. A series of battered raps, another fierce clinch and Robertson fell out over the ropes. As Cliff Newman was helping him to a more comfortable position a white towel floated over the ropes, and Hawtreys secured in the 125-pound class.

The scene opened with Lou Guernsey in the ring working his mouth into a shark and making the noise of an underfed lion.

Anthony Sisto and A. V. Vasquez, two little 104 pounders who performed unimpaired, put up a fine first round. It was a fast affair, but Sisto had a shade all through and was awarded a popular decision at the end of the third round.

Joe Rosenblum and Adolph Burke of the 125-pound division, went on next. Rosenblum insisted on loving up his opponent and the affair was a near wrestling match. Burke won the decision and everybody was happy.

Next to the Hawtreys-Robertson affair, in the matter of class, was the argument between Clarence Hennicke and Frank Mathews. It was one great bout. At the end of three rounds

MISSOURI IS PICKED TO WIN.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] MADISON (Wis.) June 5.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) What little remains of the California hopes of retaining the conference championship was blasted today when it was announced that four Coast stars would not compete at Madison on Saturday.

The four athletes concerned are Deason, hurdler and high jumper; Allen, broad jumper; and McFee and Clark, Deason and Allen won seven of the ten points that California tallied in the intercollegiate meet at Boston a week ago.

Deason has left for the Coast to take an examination in dentistry. Allen, holder of the conference record in the broad jump, and McFee and Clark were declared ineligible. The first because he has already competed for three years on his team, and the other two because they are freshmen. This leaves the high jump, high hurdles and broad jump all practically at the mercy of Missouri.

STAGE STARS MARRY ON EVE OF TOUR TO COAST.

ROMANCE of the stage was brought to its conclusion Wednesday night in Philadelphia, just before the big special train heading for the members of the Winter Garden company left the Quaker City for their long journey west to present "The Passing Show of 1915" in the principal Pacific Coast cities.

The event was the marriage of two of the foremost divas on the American stage, Adelaide and J. J. Hughes, a couple who have been dancing to the same tune for years and who, although they have maintained a stage partnership that has made them both famous, have now formed a life partnership.

Together they have enjoyed a wonderful career. They have appeared in both Europe and America and for the last two seasons have been one of the distinct hits in the Shubert's production of "The Passing Show."

Their marriage in Philadelphia on Wednesday, however, was a genuine surprise to every one of the hundred-odd members of this organization, who were not made aware of the triumph of Cupid over these two stage stars until after the train was headed for Denver where the special comes to the end of its long run next Saturday morning.

Adelaide and Hughes will be seen here at the Majestic Theatre on June 11, when "The Passing Show of 1915" begins an engagement of two weeks.

CONCENTRATION OF ORCHESTRAS.

SYMPHONY AND PEOPLE'S ORCHESTRAS.

Which Method Fulfills of Best Musical Expression—Economy and Advancement of Cooperation in Orchestral Productions.

BY HECTOR ALLOT.

With the resignation of Herbert H. Brown as leader of the Symphony Orchestra and the launching of the People's Orchestra, local efforts for the raising of musical standards have been divided.

It is to be sincerely regretted that the two organizations have not come together.

Orchestral music, under the present conditions, is very expensive, as a rigid schedule of prices governs the employment of musicians. The union has forced rates from which no member cannot deviate. Owing to the small number of musicians available, here, orchestras of any kind and character usually accept known conditions or give up any attempt to obtain orchestral music to the place they are demanded by this city, which is recognized in the West and abroad as possessing, in an unusual degree, musical culture.

The Symphony Orchestra for sixteen years has elevated music; its program, complete numbers and subscription have willingly paid, and paid much handsomely, for the privilege. They have done so, however, without calling on others.

There does not seem to exist any logical reason why the People's Orchestra, which is practically the original Symphony Orchestra, should not be employed with greater regularity for the management comprising the two organizations.

On Sunday afternoon, four months of the year, during the winter, popular concerts could be given, with one or two symphonies. The Sunday concert to the musicians themselves, who compose, under the able baton of Maestro Eduardo Labegotti, an orchestra of far superior quality now than when the first concert was given.

The People's Chorus has been heard four times. The training of the voice is done slowly, laboriously. Within a limited scope, the chorus has been successful. It will be necessary to train, to weed out, to improve many of its various branches before we can claim to have an organization of cosmopolitan importance. The recent concert given by the female wing of the chorus was, however, such an improvement, that musical efficiency may be expected in the near future.

Just $4.50, paid admissions were received, an average of 1267 per concert; the average number of paces was 291, forming the grand total of 1448 as the average concert attendance.

The sum of $16,445.47 represents the total cost of thirty concerts. The receipts for the same were only $10,607.78, leaving a deficit of $5,837.69 covered by generous guarantors.

It seems to be demonstrated that better October and after April the concerts are played at a loss, also that the price of 25 cents per seat was an error.

From the above figures, it is clearly established that a scale of prices must be devised that will make the concert self-supporting, as guarantors will not be found to willingly cover the deficit every year.

To start the experiment and demonstrate its worth, many people suggested the People's Orchestra in its first year of struggle for recognition. Guarantors in the future may not be so numerous, but there is a certain dignity in self-support that the orchestra should not overlook.

The difficulty in the problem is purely financial. The average price paid for seats is 50.11, the average cost for the same is $4.45 and a fraction, which means that on the average the People's Orchestra has lost $4.45 cents per seat for thirty concerts, during seven months.

A schedule of prices based on the figures of this season's experience seems the most imperative duty of the popular organization.

This problem would disappear if one board of control governed all the symphonic concert here. Concentration of musical expression, economy, and advancement of cooperation of all the professional and amateur musicians combined with the patronage of the art, could without loss and with much credit to itself solve the problem of giving the best musical entertainment for all classes of appreciative audiences.

By the amalgamation of all unsegregated efforts, the best musicians would be able to play together, rehearse frequently and be assured of a reasonable remuneration for their services.

doctor may not prove as great as is expected.

Thirty concerts have been given by the People's Orchestra during the last seven months.

Since it is the first musical venture of the kind here, there is profit in studying the business sheet of that organization.

The economic value of thirty instrumental concerts given on Sunday afternoon is considerable, as besides well-selected programmes of ensemble, thirty-five vocal soloists, four pianists, four organists, three violinists, two cellists, one cornetist, and one clarinetist were heard.

To play together in concert and rehearse has also been of much profit.

son, the great London producer, offering enticing terms for the two comedians to go to London for an extended engagement. And right on their table when the other contract offered by Oliver Morosco and Charles Mushman jointly for a season in Chicago.

Perhaps when I said that "C.O.D." was a real haul I didn't hit the nail on the head. Just to prove it let me call attention to today's announcement that the show will go over another week at the Burbank, thus defeating Byron Haskin's return to Los Angeles in "The Fox."

On election night Judge Ross hid in the Mason, where the moving pictures of Hawaii are being shown. Though happy, he was thoroughly tired, and from hearing people say, "How are you?" on Broadway.

Met Frances Ring on the street today loaded down with mysterious parcels. She looked like a merry Christmas, but explained that she was merely getting ready to entertain Julie Ring, who will be headlining the Pantages bill in the very near future.

Quid Edwards and his thirty-five songsters are coming to the Orpheum shortly, and has had the temerity to state that he would bring with him a new song about San Francisco, which he wrote while there. Take a tip, Gus, and don't do it.

And, even at that, I have a hunch that he has a Los Angeles song already written, for he is one of the most prolific of popular song writers we have, and doubtless could write a perfectly good ditty on his way down here on the train.

Oliver Morosco hadn't forgotten his check book when he left for London yesterday that he has already secured two splendid places and a genuine novelty for the local playhouses.

They are "Hawthorne of U.S.A." in which Douglas Fairbanks starred, and "The Builders." The novelty is "Yellow Jacket."

This last is one of the most unique of recent plays. It is about a Chinese theater, and like old Ed Rice's "Evangeline" has a pantomime character for its greatest asset.

In this case he is the stage property man, and they say it's a scream. Withal the piece is quaint and delightful and has scored heavily wherever it has been played.

I can scarcely imagine Ben Lan and Laddie Cliffs on the same bill, but that is just what will happen. You see, there are few singers on the stage thinner than Laddie while Ben was fat till he came here.

He whispered in my ear last night that he had lost twenty-seven pounds in Los Angeles and all because he thought it was just what he needed. He had to buy winter clothes and all sorts of things to keep from freezing to death.

Where is Paul Armstrong? If we are to believe what a certain paper said yesterday, now would be a beautiful time for a return engagement of "A Romance of the Underworld."

Pretty little Marguerite Haney and "Tiny" Sooley, put on the Pantages programme as an extra, are scoring a real success and if they get a "regular" booking no one will be the least bit surprised.

Frances Starr who was here recently in "The Case of Becky" writes me that she has received the gold medal which the officers of the 1915 exposition awarded her for her aid in securing funds for the erection of the first of the fair buildings. This, by the way, is the first medal which has been presented, so Miss Starr feels doubly honored.

FORMER CHAMP TO HANDLE GARDNER.

Solly Smith, former featherweight champion of the world, has backed a crowd from Oscar Gardner, also an ex-pugilistic luminary, who is now putting in his time as boxing instructor for an athletic club of Portland, which sets forth the title of "Gardner of the Ring" and requests a match for the youngster at 115 pounds.

The one-time featherweight champion says he will try to get a match for old Oscar's son in this section, and if he is successful will back him in a go with any lad of his weight on the Coast.

CHALMERS IN BIG ROAD RACE.

Lancia Ready to Start Over the Valley Course.

Exact Route Has Not Been Chosen for Battle Royal.

Shettler Is Ready to Answer All Pertinent Queries.

BY HERT C. SMITH.

There will be a Chalmers-Detroit in the Los Angeles-San Francisco road race. The driver has been chosen. The car is now on the route near Merced, and this entry will be one of the interesting races in the Fourth-of-July grid.

There are still a large crowd of racers who consider one of the lighter cars will win the big race. The Chalmers is stripped, and is good for eighty-five miles an hour. The Lancia is not a light car, but a 100-mile road race will not be a gift to any racer, but a fight from the start to the finish.

The picture away into the winning car crosses the tape in San Francisco. Shettler will be on the route. This decision was reached yesterday. The actual course has not yet been chosen. The towns along the route have not yet been decided. The cars will go through Bakersfield, Fresno and Stockton. The other cities are problematical.

With the Lancia and the Chalmers the entry list is growing to such proportions that it is easy to see that the start will be the greatest race ever held. Chairman L. T. Shettler said yesterday that when the route is announced and when the plans for the start are outlined, all "knockers" and "kickers" will be happy and ready to jump into the hand wagon and say this is the greatest race ever.

Chairman Shettler is giving his time and money to this race. Those who have objections to make should take the direct to the Racing Committee. The entry list is already so large that it makes no difference if another car is placed on the roll. There are enough racers now to make this a battle royal.

The race will not be won in the San Francisco Canyon and will not be won before Fresno is reached. No matter what has been said or is being promised, the race will be a battle to the finish. Those of you who can hang back to the first Phoenix race will remember that race hands down when he was in sight of the finish, and his car quit there. Let us remember the Pacific race for a purpose that will be larger than any offered for any road race, is to be won when the first car or the car that makes the fastest time, crosses the tape at the finish.

Those who have suggestions to offer, and those who are complaining to make, are advised to write to Chairman Shettler. He is not a first-class writer, but he is a first-class man. He is in time, and just now is working his head off to make this the greatest race ever held. He is in meeting with success at every turn. Here's to L. T. Shettler, and here's to the world all up and take notice. It's to be the greatest road race in automobile annals.

SNAPPY CARD IS OFFERED AT VENICE.

Some fast and pleasing four-round matches are in order for the programme of the Auditorium Athletic Club at Venice tonight when some of the best material will be shown to the patrons of the beach club.

Eddie Duffy of Brooklyn, who comes heralded as one of the tough pugilists, meets Bud Boyd, another newcomer, who has been seen in the training camp with Al Wolcott, the champion of the world.

Both boxes are fairly clever and sparring partner for Johnny Dundee.

Motto does not care who his opponent may be and although he is a small man, he is a first-class fighter. He is pinking Joe McDermott or Kid Carter as the opponents he most desires.

Neither one of these boxes could be had for this date, and Gilmore has elected to bill him with an unknown.

These unknown stars have sprung some surprises in the past and this may be another.

Tony Ross, whose quick victory a week ago over Young Fitzsimmons, has increased his fighting stock considerably, meets Phil Donovan in the "wind-up."

Both boxes are fairly clever and sparring partner for Johnny Dundee.

George Harvey of Venice and Bill Anderson of Bakersfield will open the bill at 125 pounds.

CANOLE SUFFERING FROM OLD INJURY.

(BY DEWEY WARD TO THE TIMES.)

SACRAMENTO, June 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Willis Canole, one time one of the best known four-round boxers on the coast, who had been employed in the State laundry in this city, and who last week was arrested by the police at a downtown hotel, is now in the insane asylum at Stockton, presumably as the result of a blow received from hitting Nelson several years ago.

For some time he had shown signs of approaching insanity, and two or three days prior to his arrest, he had been noticed shadow boxing. According to the officers who accompanied him to Stockton, he imagined he was in the prize ring and insisted on shadow boxing.

It is understood an operation will be performed upon his skull by the asylum authorities and it is believed that he will recover.

BULLETINS FOR TENNIS MATCHES.

For the first time in the history of tennis, arrangements have been made to bulletin the results of the classics today in New York between the Australian and American teams.

The Los Angeles Country Club, the California Club and the Jonathan Club will receive bulletins at the end of each set this afternoon.

M'LOUGHLIN TO START DAVIS CUP PLAY TODAY.

THIS afternoon at 3 o'clock on the courts of the West Side Tennis Club, Maurice McLaughlin of California will meet James N. Rice of Australia in the first singles match of the preliminary round for the Davis Cup emblematic of the championship of the world in tennis.

On an adjoining court, R. Norris Williams of Philadelphia, the man who won the Wimbledon title last year for the championship of this country, will meet Stanley H. Doubt, captain of the Australian team in singles.

There has never been a tennis match played in the United States and none in Europe in the last decade that has approached the interest that is displayed throughout the country in this match.

This year the United States has a wonderful opportunity to win the famous cup which has never rested on these shores. When Rice and Jones of the Australian team stepped over in Los Angeles en route to New York a month or six weeks ago they did not show any form that would make them formidable opponents for either McLaughlin or Williams.

Except it might be noted that Rice showed a wonderful improvement in his game when he played singles in his singles match here he won a love set from Tom Bundy and proved himself a master at the singles game.

However as Bundy was miles out of form Rice did not show anything that should worry McLaughlin.

Arrangements have been made by the West Side Club in New York for a crowd of over 10,000 spectators, as the interest in the east is at fever heat.

McLaughlin is treated to a love set in singles and when paired with old friend Rice in doubles should win his match.

The followers of tennis in California who know the great game and who look forward to the American winning through all circumstances, are securing the right to challenge for the Davis Cup.

Stanley H. Doubt, captain of the Australian team, is a native of California and he came from Pomona, is a person of Park who has won the great Brooks of Australia last year when England won the cup.

Farks is a new comer to international tennis, but proved in the world's tournament that he is a man who can withstand the pressure of a five-set match with any Englishman, or rather Irishman, who comes from Pomona, is a person of Park who has won the great Brooks of Australia last year when England won the cup.

The schedule of the matches follows: First day, Friday, matches 1, Maurice McLaughlin, United States, versus James N. Rice, Australia; 2, R. Norris Williams, United States, versus Stanley H. Doubt, Australia; 3, Tom Bundy, United States, versus Harold H. Hackett, United States, versus Stanley H. Doubt, Australia; 4, Stanley H. Doubt, Australia, versus R. Norris Williams, United States.

Second day, Saturday, matches 5, Maurice McLaughlin, United States, versus Stanley H. Doubt, Australia; 6, R. Norris Williams, United States, versus Stanley H. Doubt, Australia; 7, Tom Bundy, United States, versus Harold H. Hackett, United States, versus Stanley H. Doubt, Australia; 8, Stanley H. Doubt, Australia, versus R. Norris Williams, United States.

"UNDERWORLD" JUST AS IT IS.

"Place Inhabited by People That I Don't Like."

How Unfortunates May Get Out of the Pit.

Authority on Vice Interviewed by Salanie Fakar.

Salanie Fakar, a contributor to the Times, last evening an alleged interview with an exiled Los Angeles stationer and depositor dictator whose hobby is "The Underworld."

The Times cannot vouch for the authenticity of the interview; in fact, it doubts if it has any authenticity. It is plainly underwritten in its origin. One devil seems to have been talking with another.

"What do you say, editor?" was the first question asked.

"The only one in town," was the answer.

"Are you strong on play?" "Are you strong that I am a racist?" "Are you really the most pious man in town?"

"I have a monopoly of all the right 'righteousness' in this city, and I don't believe of it."

"Did you write the famous article about the underworld, or did one of your friends do it?" "I wrote everything on my paper, and everybody, I am the only real writer I have."

"What do you know about the underworld?" "There is nothing about it that I know. I had a long experience with it and it cost me a ball of a lot of money."

"What is the underworld?" "It is a place where they do not do what the Tribune and Express tell them to do."

"What are the delusions of the underworld?" "The people that I don't like." "If you don't like anybody, that person is one of the underworld—that's all."

"You have it about right, young man."

"Is there any way to get out of the underworld?" "A few have been known to get out, but only in the right place a 'short' people object to this classification of yours? Have you not had any luck?"

"I don't dare to stay put as I put it. I don't allow anybody to do my classifying but myself—or any other."

"You think the underworld is in the last election?" "I don't say that. You are claiming that you won the election?"

"A great game like myself is not in the last election?" "You are claiming that you won the election?"

"You are claiming that you won the election?" "You are claiming that you won the election?"

"You are claiming that you won the election?" "You are claiming that you won the election?"

"You are claiming that you won the election?" "You are claiming that you won the election?"

"You are claiming that you won the election?" "You are claiming that you won the election?"

"You are claiming that you won the election?" "You are claiming that you won the election?"

"You are claiming that you won the election?" "You are claiming that you won the election?"

"You are claiming that you won the election?" "You are claiming that you won the election?"

"You are claiming that you won the election?" "You are claiming that you won the election?"

"You are claiming that you won the election?" "You are claiming that you won the election?"

"You are claiming that you won the election?" "You are claiming that you won the election?"

"You are claiming that you won the election?" "You are claiming that you won the election?"

"You are claiming that you won the election?" "You are claiming that you won the election?"

NEWS REPORTS FROM CORRESPONDENTS OF THE TIMES.

GOVERNMENT ESTIMATE.

Newport Beach Chamber of Commerce Advised by Uncle Sam That City Must Make a Showing.

NEWPORT BEACH, June 5.—The Newport Beach Chamber of Commerce has received from the War Department an estimate on the cost of the proposed jetty at the entrance to Newport Bay, the construction of which is proposed to be undertaken at least expense of $1,250,000.

The report states that the United States has contributed to the work of developing the harbor to the full extent of available co-operation at this time by making the survey of the bay, but the report adds that "if the community should improve the entrance and individual property owners should deepen the bay proper, and from this work there should result a shipping trade of considerable volume, the United States to aid in the further improvement of the harbor would take on a different aspect."

Procedings have already been started by the Board of Trustees of the city of Newport Beach to call a bond election to vote bonds in the sum of $1,000,000 to build the jetty at the entrance to the bay.

Charles H. Wallace, cashier of the State Bank of Newport, left this morning for Rochester, Minn., where he will undergo his fourth operation for intestinal obstruction, having been operated upon three times in Long Beach about a year ago. He was accompanied to Minnesota by his wife and daughter.

POLICE OFFICER KILLED.

San Diego Man Recovers Fatal Injury When Auto Is Crowded Off Road by Other Machine.

SAN DIEGO, June 5.—W. B. Kirkland, a police officer, is dead, Mrs. Kirkland received painful bruises and cuts, Marian Caffar, a niece, is probably internally injured, and L. P. Palmer, a patrolman, received possible internal injuries as the result of an automobile accident just before midnight. Twenty-eighth-street bridge, which crosses a canyon fifty feet from the ground.

Forced to the extreme right of the road by two automobiles traveling abreast, the machine driven by Palmer plunged into a fence, the top of Kirkland from his seat. Kirkland died almost instantly. Chance luck in their positions saved the others from injury by the fall, but they were hurt from the car.

Palmer and the two women, who were hysterical, were rushed to a hospital and for a time it was said they were considered fatally injured. The party was en route home from a dance in Palmer's machine at the time of the accident.

IS CHARGED WITH FRAUD.

San Diego Attorney Is Alleged to Have Converted Property of Victim to His Own Use.

[REDACTED] WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN DIEGO, June 5.—L. E. Daddum, a prominent attorney who was active in supporting the Purty in League a year ago, was today indicted by the grand jury on two counts—under false pretenses and obtaining money.

He is charged with fraudulently and feloniously working on the fear of George W. Webb, an old soldier confined in jail on a serious charge, to the extent that he cheated him out of $10,000 worth of real estate.

The indictment specifically charges that Webb signed the deed to the property on Daddum's promise that the company would pay him a sum of money and that Daddum, securing the deed, immediately recorded it, transferring the property to himself.

Daddum was arrested by the sheriff tonight and released upon a $2000 bail bond. It is announced by the District Attorney that the case will be prosecuted with the same vigor that all criminal cases are prosecuted.

FULLERTON BRIEFS.

FULLERTON, June 5.—Death came suddenly Tuesday night to George Olinda, heart failure being the cause. He was 49 years of age and had been a resident of Olinda for five years.

The record of the city Superintendent of Buildings for the month of May shows that the permits issued foot up a total of $18,168.

The Placencia, trucking-houses are all doing a rushing business. The Placencia Mutual Association is shipping three cars of oranges daily with only 18 per cent. loss on account of the cold weather, and has shipped twenty-five cars absolutely free from frost. The O. G. Association is sending out on an average of two and one-half cars daily, with only 10 per cent. loss, and has shipped fifty cars of Valencia.

Saturday afternoon there will be held in the Biology building of the High School a pupils' free exhibition of the articles to be exhibited by the Garden products, flowers of all kinds, birds, eggs, sewing, cooking. Blue ribbons are to be given for the best exhibition in each class and red for second.

Maurice and Harry Ray, who have been head employees of the Stern & Goodman Mercantile Company for fifteen years, are going into business for themselves, having opened a large brokerage commission-house on the Santa Fe tracks, east of the depot.

PITTSBURGH ARRIVES.

SAN DIEGO, June 5.—[By A. P. Night Wire.] An 800-ton Guaymas, Mex., on a rush trip, to relieve the cruiser Pittsburgh arrived here from San Francisco this morning and after taking on supplies sailed for the Mexican port.

Capt. W. G. Gilmer, recently transferred from the cruiser Colorado, is in command. Admiral Walter C. Cowles, in charge of the Pacific fleet, will transfer his flag from the California to Guaymas. The California will come here for target practice in ten days.

AWARDED DAMAGES.

SANTA BARBARA, June 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Damages to the amount of $1500 were awarded by a jury in the Superior Court tonight to C. E. George, being the contractor, but he carried liability insurance covering the whole amount.

REDLANDS.

LIQUOR FIGHT IS LAUNCHED.

REDLANDS MERCHANTS TALK PLAINLY ABOUT THE MATTER.

Three Out of Eighty Oppose the Movement to Allow a Wholesale Place to Be Established in the City—Petition Calling for an Election Is Adequately Signed.

REDLANDS, June 5.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The first run of the anti-prohibition campaign was held tonight at the annual banquet of the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association held in the Elk's clubhouse, when a resolution was adopted endorsing the proposed new ordinance regulating the liquor traffic.

There were eighty men present and three of the number, O. G. Kennard, F. W. Smith and H. C. Smith, stood up to vote against the resolution, deeming it a slur on the city and that while he favors the granting of a table license to hotels, he opposed the proposed wholesale liquor-house, not believing that any merchant present would be willing to have it established next to his place of business.

E. B. Patterson, an attorney, was treasurer, was introduced by Sam Beeson, the new president of the association. He declared that Redlands has been following a course of narrowness and hypocrisy, that is inflicting the city and that under the present ordinance it is unlawful even to use wine at a church sacrament.

Other speeches in favor of the change were made by J. Edgar Williams, Charles M. Brown, Dr. H. T. Tyley, Postmaster W. M. Tisdale, Halzer Allen and A. Leinen.

CATCH MANY FLIES.

A. E. Chapman, the city's official fly catcher, reported today that he had caught 241 gallons of flies since he went to work with his fly traps for the city last September. He has been able to closely estimate the number of flies to a gallon by dividing a pint into small lots and counting them.

In this way he has found that the gallon number of dead flies to the gallon is 40,000. Consequently, he has captured 14,440,000 flies since he started his fly hunt. "In view of the fact that scientists estimate that every time a fly is killed the slayer prevents the birth of 1,725,000 flies, it must be admitted that Mr. Chapman is an efficient fly killer. At any rate the flies are not half so thick in the city as they were 18 months ago."

NOTED HUNTER.

John H. Fisher of this city figures in the leading article in the June number of Outing, a description of a hunting trip taken last October by Mr. Fisher, John B. Miller of Los Angeles, president of the Southern California Edison Company, and the author of the article, Stewart Edward White.

Many of the photographs were taken by Mr. Fisher. The scene of the hunt was in a remote section of the Rockies in Montana, the party getting the limit of mountain goats, elk and deer.

LOST HIS WAD.

Val Serrano, a plasterer employed by Taylor Bros. Brick Company, has reported to the police the loss of $48 in gold

Public Service: City Hall, Courts.

SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

At a conference yesterday between the Board of Public Works and the Harbor Commission it was decided that the board shall use the $200,000 yet in its hands of the original bond money for harbor development to start work on raising Timpana Point and cutting strips through Nob Hill.

Commissioner Handley declared yesterday in favor of sending "some one" to Germany to study methods of using solids in sewage. Handley believes this method could be applied here and thus save the city $1,000,000.

The Board of Public Works awarded two important contracts for street work yesterday. One is for paving East First street from Chicago to Broadway, and the other the improvement of the Wilmington-San Pedro road across Lot 1 of Rancho Palos Verdes, the last link of the harbor highway.

The City Council may offer the Los Angeles Railway Corporation a franchise on Hill street, between California and Temple streets, in lieu of one on California street that may have to be abandoned because of a change in grade necessitated by the proposed lowering of the surface of the Broadway tunnel.

The wife of a California man died yesterday after a divorce with a year's separation, having been reconciled to her husband after she had received a divorce in the state of California.

Notice of appeal was filed yesterday by a wealthy society woman whose divorce suit against a clubman was dismissed yesterday by the court.

A girl who is the complaining witness against a much-talked-of photographer was arrested yesterday on her continued refusal to testify against him.

At the City Hall.

WILL GET BUSY ON HILL-RAZING.

BOND MONEY HELD BY WORKS BOARD TO PROVIDE MEANS.

Results will be early beginning of work at Timpana Point and Nob Hill—link to the sea, for next week. After the Advisory Board meets.

Beginning of work on the raising of Timpana Point and cutting through of streets in Nob Hill, at the Los Angeles harbor, is scheduled for the immediate future. This was made practically certain by a conference held yesterday between the Board of Public Works, Harbor Commission and City Engineer and special counsel, preliminary to the formal meeting of the Harbor Advisory Board next Monday.

The entire situation was discussed and it was determined that for the best interests of the development work at the harbor, the Board of Public Works should be asked by the Harbor Advisory Board to use the $200,000 still remaining of the original bond money for harbor improvements for the purpose of carrying on the hill-raising operations and the subsequent work on the city's future tract of land adjacent to the Timpana Point and Municipal Dock No. 1.

Money will be available for carrying on that work as soon as the recent bond issue for harbor improvements is sold, and the Harbor Commission has plans in hand for getting these bonds on the market. Its members believe they can be sold as fast as they are issued, and provide for continuing work after the funds in the Public Works Board's hands are expended.

Here's the Junkie.

Commissioner Handley of the Board of Public Works declared yesterday that he was in favor of sending "some one" to Germany for the purpose of studying methods used in cities of that country for utilizing the solids in sewage. Handley is modest and does not say this "some one" should be he. He believes that such an investigation might be the means of saving at least a million dollars to Los Angeles, and would also interest him in a second bond issue for harbor improvements for which have been ordered by the Board of Public Works.

Handley also stated that he was strongly in favor of the city disposing of its garbage in hop-feeders at Mazatlán, if this plan can be carried through, and A. T. French, Commissioner of the city, is in favor of the plan with the privilege of an extension of another five years, can be secured.

As the question of garbage disposal as the most important one, he announced and announced large number of people are experimenting with different systems, Handley believes that Los Angeles will be successful in letting these experiments proceed at other cities, with the prospect that while the next decade the proper solution will be reached.

While the city will save an outlay of from $250,000 to $300,000 for a garbage destruction plant, if the garbage hop-feeders plan can be carried through.

Back to Committee.

The Vehicle Tax ordinance will go into effect June 15, unless superseded by the amended ordinance, which has been under consideration for the past two weeks, and the tax schedule of which is agreed to by various business organizations that opposed the original ordinance. The amended ordinance was sent to the Council yesterday by the Legislative Committee.

One of the amendments was to provide that the tax shall apply to all vehicles, and the subject was referred back to the committee. The final report will be made next Tuesday.

Board of Public Works.

The Streets and Highways Committee of the City Council yesterday recommended the immediate starting of work on the raising of Timpana Point and cutting through of streets in Nob Hill, at the Los Angeles harbor, is scheduled for the immediate future. This was made practically certain by a conference held yesterday between the Board of Public Works, Harbor Commission and City Engineer and special counsel, preliminary to the formal meeting of the Harbor Advisory Board next Monday.

He believes that such an investigation might be the means of saving at least a million dollars to Los Angeles, and would also interest him in a second bond issue for harbor improvements for which have been ordered by the Board of Public Works.

The Rogers Brothers Company was given the contract for the improvement of the Wilmington-San Pedro road across Lot 1 of Rancho Palos Verdes, for $4672. This is the last uncompleted stretch of the highway to the harbor.

The bid of the Standard American Dredging Company for the improvement of E street, Wilmington, from the inner bay exception line to West First street, which was $12,389.95 was considered, and this was referred to Messrs. Carey, Wood and Eubank of Wilmington, to report as to whether it is satisfactory to the citizens of Wilmington. The City Engineer reports that this price represents eight cents per cubic yard for the entire fill that is being made in the area south of Front street, west of First street and north of the inner bay exception line.

May Offer Franchise.

When the City Council receives from the Board of Public Works the letter from Chief Engineer Roberts of the Los Angeles Railway Corporation, in which he offers the corporation wants to know the policy of the city regarding the street railway on California street that may be abandoned because of a change in grade necessitated by the proposed lowering of the surface of the Broadway tunnel.

The wife of a California man died yesterday after a divorce with a year's separation, having been reconciled to her husband after she had received a divorce in the state of California.

NORTON KICKING UP MORE DUST.

NOVICE SUPERVISOR BALKS AT LEGITIMATE BILL.

Insists Depositions of Distant Witnesses Should Have Been Taken in Trial. Thinks Court Provides That It Is Illegal—Calls for an Investigation, Too.

Supervisor Norton clashed with the District Attorney's office yesterday when demands for payment of services of detectives in the trial of Lee Cooper, convicted burglar, were presented. The supervisor declared that far too much money was wasted in prosecuting him.

"These warrants may be all right," said he testily, "but I believe an investigation should be made. Here is an item for Operative No. 34. Who is the man? I see no reason for passing all such demands without looking into them."

Norton, who was the leader in the move to have the salary of Capt. Dodge, probation officer, cut from $284 a month to $150 on the plea of economy, entered into a discussion with Deputy District Attorney Chandler, who tried to get the supervisor to accept the bill. "I don't see why it was necessary to send back to Illinois to get a witness when depositions would have been as good," said he.

Shannon patiently explained that the code provides that in a criminal case a defendant must be confronted with the witnesses against him. "I don't care whether the bills are honored or not," said Shannon. "That is an argument that can be made by one of the prosecuting attorneys in the case. I can conscientiously say that not a dollar was wasted. The complaining witness was not known to us. We investigated his standing back in Illinois. Also it is a common thing for the friends of confidence men to pay the victims large sums of money upon the understanding that they will leave the jurisdiction."

"I had two detectives with G. F. Friess day and night while he was here. We won the case after a hard fight. Rial got an adequate sentence. If legitimate bills are to be held up by some one through personal feeling it will be more and more difficult to render adequate justice in cases which will cost the county some money."
